CANON 25 OF TITLE I OF THE DIGEST.

OF CHURCH MUSIC.

§ 1. The Hymns which are set forth by authority, and Anthems in the words of Holy Scripture, are allowed to be sung in all Congregations of this Church before and after Morning and Evening Prayer, and also before and after Sermons, at the discretion of the Minister, whose duty it shall be, by standing directions, or from time to time, to appoint such authorized Hymns or Anthems as are to be sung.

§ 2. It shall be the duty of every Minister of this Church, with such assistance as he may see fit to employ from persons skilled in music, to give order concerning the tunes to be sung at any time in his church; and especially, it shall be his duty to suppress all light and unseemly music, and all indecency and irreverence in the performance, by which vain and ungodly persons profane the service of the sanctuary.

Preface.

In preparing a musical edition of the Hymnal set forth by the General Convention of 1892, the editor has sought to keep in mind not only the great variety of occasions and services for which the Hymnal provides, but the equally great variety of tastes, and he might well add needs, of those who will use it. Influenced and guided in his work by these two considerations more than by any other, he hopes that this musical edition of the Hymnal of the Church may be found helpful not only in city parishes having well trained choirs, but in country parishes, and missions and homes; above all, that it may do something towards the increase of congregational singing.

The editor would consider it a privilege, did the limits of this preface permit, to mention by name the many clergy, and others, who have aided him with valuable suggestions and contributions. To them all, and to those who have kindly given permission for the use of copyrighted music, he gratefully returns his thanks.

And he is under special obligation for advice and critical assistance to Mr. Horatio W. Parker, organist of Trinity Church, Boston, to Mr. Warren A. Locke, organist of St. Paul's Church, Boston, and Harvard University, Cambridge, and to Mr. Arthur Whiting, of Boston.

Thou didst leave Thy throne.....319
While shepherds watched their flocks by night 54

Old Year.

A few more years shall roll.....203
Across the sky the shades of night.....202
Days and moments quickly flying.....621

FIRST LINE OF HYMN. NO.
I'm but a stranger here 623
Jesu, still lead on 420
Lead us, O Father, in the paths of peace 422

O God, our help in ages past 418

New Year.

For Thy mercy and Thy grace 204
From glory unto glory 205

Jesus, I live to Thee 666
My times are in Thy hand 626
Now a new year opens 541
Though faint yet pursuing 628

Epiphany.

Arm of the Lord, awake! awake! 265
As with gladness men of old 65
Blow ye the trumpet, blow 330
Brightest and best of the sons of the morning 66
Earth has many a noble city 63
Fierce was the storm of wind 71
Fling out the banner! let it float 253
From the Eastern mountains 62
Glory to Thee, O Lord 70
God of mercy, God of grace 332
Hail to the Lord's Anointed 323
Hasten the time appointed 255
Joy to the world, the Lord is come 324
Light of those whose dreary dwelling 325
Lord, a Saviour's love displaying 258
Lord of all power and might 328
Not by Thy mighty hand 72
O One with God the Father 68
O very God of very God 326
Rise, crowned with light, imperial Salem, rise 487
Saw you never in the twilight 542
Songs of thankfulness and praise 67
The morning light is breaking 252
Thou Whose Almighty word 327
Thy kingdom come, O Lord 329
Watchman, tell us of the night 331
Within the Father's house 69
When from the East the wise men came 64

Septuagesima, etc.

Go labour on, spend and be spent 584

THE HYMNAL

I. DAILY PRAYER

Morning

MELCOMBE

♩ = 88. New ev - ery morn-ing is the love Our wakening and up - ris - ing prove;

mf

Thro' sleep and darkness safely brought, Restor'd to life, and pow'r, and thought. AMEN.

mf 2 New mercies, each returning day,
Hover around us while we pray;
New perils past, new sins forgiven,
cr New thoughts of God, new hopes of heaven.

mf 3 If on our daily course our mind
Be set to hallow all we find,
New treasures still, of countless price,
God will provide for sacrifice.

mf 4 Old friends, old scenes, will lovelier be,
As more of heaven in each we see;
dim Some softening gleam of love and prayer Shall dawn on every cross and care.

mf 5 The trivial round, the common task,
Will furnish all we need to ask;
Room to deny ourselves, a road
To bring us daily nearer God.

p 6 Only, O Lord, in Thy dear love, Fit us for perfect rest above;
mf And help us, this and every day,
To live more nearly as we pray.

2 PART I — L. M. — MORNING HYMN, F. H. Bartholemon

♩ = 88. A - wake, my soul, and with the sun Thy dai - ly stage of du - ty run; Shake off dull sloth, and ear-ly rise To pay thy morn-ing sac - ri - fice. A - MEN.

mf 2 Redeem thy misspent time that's past,
And live this day as if thy last;
Improve thy talent with due care;
For the great Day thyself prepare.

mf 3 Wake, and lift up thyself, my heart,
And with the angels bear thy part,
Who all night long, unwearied, sing
High praise to the eternal King.

PART II

mf 4 All praise to Thee, Who safe has kept,
And hast refreshed me while I slept;
Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake
I may of endless light partake.

mf 5 Lord, I my vows to Thee renew;
Scatter my sins as morning dew;
Guard my first springs of thought and will,
And with Thyself my spirit fill.

mf 6 Direct, control, suggest, this day,
All I design, or do, or say;
That all my pow'rs, with all their might,
In Thy sole glory may unite.

f 7 Praise God, from Whom all blessings flow,
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, angelic host:
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Thomas Ken

The Doxology may be sung also at the end of Part I ♩ = 100. Come, my soul, thou must be wak - ing! Now is break-ing O'er the earth an - oth - er day: Come, to Him Who made this splendour, See thou ren-der All thy fee - ble strength can pay. A - MEN.

mf 2 Pray that He may prosper ever
Each endeavour,
When thine aim is good and true;
f But that He may ever thwart thee,
And convert thee,
When thou evil would'st pursue.

p 3 Think that He thy ways beholdeth;
He unfoldeth
Every fault that lurks within;
mf He the hidden shame glossed over
Can discover,
And discern each deed of sin.

p 4 Mayest thou on life's last morrow,
Free from sorrow,
Pass away in slumber sweet;
cr And, released from death's dark sadness,
f Rise in gladness,
That far brighter Sun to greet.

p 5 Only God's free gifts abuse not,
Light refuse not,
But His Spirit's voice obey;
cr Thou with Him shalt dwell, beholding Light enfolding
All things in unclouded day.

mf 2 Still the greatness of Thy love
Daily doth our sins remove:
Daily, far as east from west,
cr Lifts the burden from the breast:
Gives unbought, to those who pray,
dim Strength to stand in evil day.

p 3 Let our prayers each morn prevail,
That these gifts may never fail;
And, as we confess the sin
And the tempter's power within,
cr Feed us with the Bread of Life;
Fit us for our daily strife.

mf 4 As the morning light returns,
As the sun with splendour burns,
Teach us still to turn to Thee,
Ever blessed Trinity,
cr With our hands our hearts to raise,
f In unfailing prayer and praise.

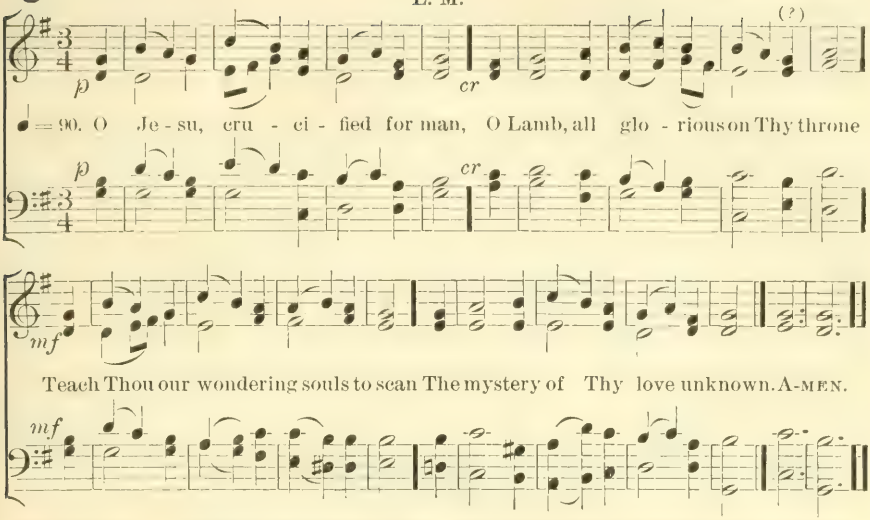
FRIDAY

5 (FIRST TUNE) L. M. INTERCESSION



mf 2 We pray Thee, grant us strength to take Our daily cross, whate'er it be,
And gladly for Thine own dear sake dim In paths of pain to follow Thee.

mf 3 As on our daily way we go,
Thro' light or shade, in calm or strife, cr O may we bear Thy marks below dim In conquered sin and chastened life.

mf 4 And week by week this day we ask That holy memories of Thy Cross
May sanctify each common task,
And turn to gain each earthly loss.

p 5 Grant us, dear Lord, our cross to bear Till at Thy feet we lay it down, cr Win thro' Thy blood our pardon there,
f And thro' the cross attain the crown.

mf 2 Once more 't is eventide, and we mf 3 O Saviour Christ, our woes dispel;

Yet from the world they break not free,
And some have friends who give them pain,
Yet have not sought a friend in Thee.

And they who fain would love Thee best

Thou hast been troubled, tempted, tried,
Thy kind, but searching glance can scan

REDHEAD, No. 12
R. Redhead

mf

♩=88. Be - fore the end - ing of the day, Cre - a - tor of the world, we pray,

mf

That, with Thy wonted fa-vour, Thou Wouldst be our Guard and Keeper now. AMEN.

p 2 From all ill dreams defend our sight,
From fears and terrors of the night;
Withhold from us our ghostly foe,
That spot of sin we may not know.

mf 3 O Father, that we ask be done,
Through Jesus Christ, Thine only Son;
cr Who, with the Holy Ghost and Thee,
Doth live and reign eternally.

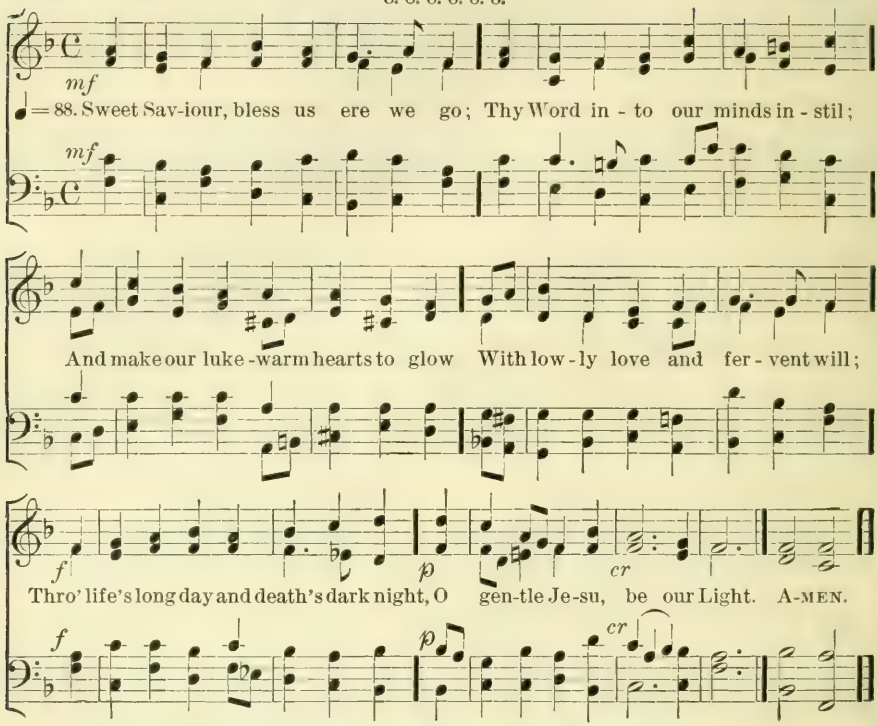
8. 8. 8. 8. 8. 8.



p 2 The day is gone, its hours have run,
And Thou hast taken count of all,
The scanty triumphs grace hath won,
The broken vow, the frequent fall.
f Thro' life's long day and death's dark night,
p O gentle Jesu, (cr) be our Light.

mf 3 Grant us, dear Lord, from evil ways
True absolution and release;
And bless us, more than in past days,
With purity and inward peace.
f Thro' life's long day and death's dark night,
p O gentle Jesu, (cr) be our Light.

p 4 For all we love, the poor, the sad,
The sinful, unto Thee we call;
cr O let Thy mercy make us glad;
f Thou art our Saviour, and our all.
Thro' life's long day and death's dark night,

mf 2 Around the throne on high,
Where night can never be,
The white-robed harpers of the sky
Bring ceaseless hymns to Thee.

p 3 Too faint our anthems here;
Too soon of praise we tire:
cr But O the strains how full and clear
Of that eternal choir!

mf 4 Yet, Lord, to Thy dear will
If Thou attune the heart,
We in Thine angels' music still May bear our lower part.

mf 5 'T is Thine each soul to calm,

In perfect praise shall blend.

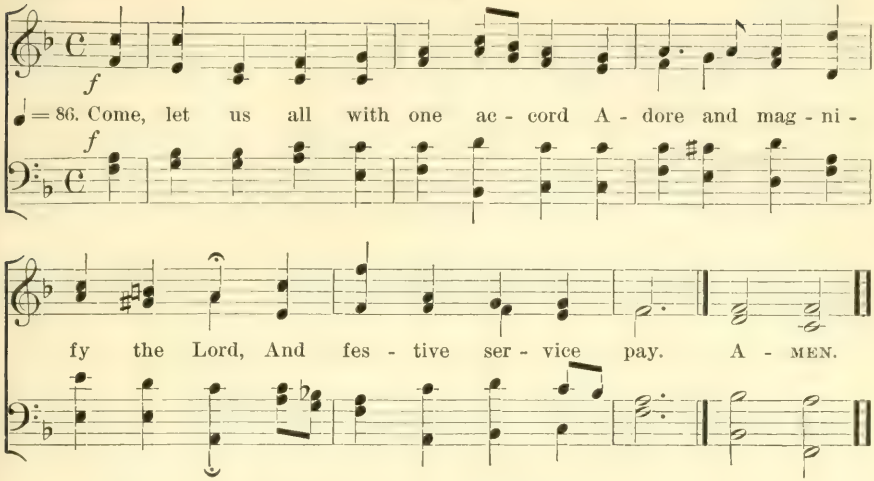
HOLY DAY
H. W. Parker



mf 2 On this the day that God hath blest,
The day of peace and heavenly rest,
The Lord's own holy day.

mf 3 That saw primeval darkness break,
And that more glorious life awake
That lasteth evermore;

f 4 That saw hell's legions prostrate fall,
And Christ, triumphant over all,
His own to heaven restore.

mf 5 This day the peace that flows from heaven
Was unto the Apostles given,
When doors were closed at night;

mf 6 This day the Holy Spirit's flame
Upon the Church's teachers came,
And filled their souls with light.

f 7 Still on this day with trumpet sound
The Gospel notes are ringing round,
To call the world to pray:

p 8 Then on this day let us adore
Our God, and supplication pour, pp That, when worlds pass away,

9 Through Christ's dear grace our souls may rest
In peace and joy, for ever blest, Till the great Judgment Day.

p Lord, make Thy pastors faithful, (cr) to guard their flocks from ill,
And grant them dauntless courage, (dim) with humble, earnest will.

ST. JAMES

Drank of Thy cup of suffering, fulfilling thus Thy word.
Curb we all vain impatience to read Thy veiled decree,
And count it joy to suffer, (cr) if so brought nearer Thee.

ST. BARTHOLOMEW

Whom underneath the fig tree Thine eye all-seeing knew.
mf Like him may we be guileless, true Israelites indeed, cr That Thy abiding presence our longing souls may feed.

ST. MATTHEW

f 16 Praise, Lord, for him whose Gospel Thy human life declared, Who, worldly gains forsaking, (dim) Thy path of suffering shared.
p From all unrighteous mammon, O give us hearts set free,
That we, whate'er our calling, (cr) may rise and follow Thee.

ST. LUKE

f 17 For that "beloved physician," all praise, whose Gospel shows
The Healer of the nations, the Sharer of our woes.
mf Thy wine and oil, O Saviour, on bruised hearts deign to pour, cr And with true balm of Gilead anoint us evermore.

ST. SIMON AND ST. JUDE

f 18 Praise, Lord, for Thine Apostles, who sealed their faith to-day:
One love, one zeal impelled them to tread the sacred way.
mf May we with zeal as earnest the Faith of Christ maintain,
And, bound in love as brethren, (dim) at length Thy rest attain.

GENERAL ENDING

mf 19 Apostles, Prophets, Martyrs, and all the sacred throng, Who wear the spotless raiment, who raise the ceaseless song;
p For these, passed on before us, (cr) Saviour, we Thee adore,
And, walking in their footsteps, (f) would serve Thee more and more

f 20 Then praise we God the Father, and praise we God the Son,
And God the Holy Spirit, eternal Three in One;
Till all the ransomed number fall down before the throne,
And honour, power, and glory ascribe to God alone.

dim The sheep and lambs bought by Thy blood;

mf 2 To Thee, O Jesus, throned beside Thy Father's right hand, here we cry;
True Bridegroom of Thy spotless Bride,
With all Thy human love, draw nigh.
Our human nature, Thy divine
Has wedded, and in Thee, dear Lord,
As Cana's water turned to wine,
Its lost godlikeness is restored.

mp 3 O Holy Ghost the Paraclete, Thee too we worship, God and Lord,
And honour Thee, with praises meet,
One with the Father and the Word.

cr Lord and Life-giver, hear our prayer,
Come, sanctify, and bless, and guide,
Strengthen, and shelter 'neath Thy care,
The life of bridegroom and of bride.

f 4 O God Triune, Whom heav'n's host Adores with sweet and ceaseless song;
O Father, Son and Holy Ghost,
To Whom all worship doth belong;
Hear, in these echoes faint and dim
Of chant and prayer and holy psalm,
Their songs, the heavenly feast who hymn,
The marriage supper of the Lamb.

To break his chain and bid him rise;
And lo! the saint, as free as air,

♩ = 88. Lift the strain of high thanks-giv-ing! Tread with songs the hal- low'd way!

Praise our fa-thers' God, for mer-cies, New to us their sons to-day:

Here they built for Him a dwell-ing, Served Him here in a-ges past, Fix'd it for His sure poss-ess-ion, Ho-ly ground, while time shall last. A-MEN.

mf 2 When the years had wrought their chang-es,
He, our own unchanging God,
Thought on this His habitation, Looked on His decayed abode;
cr Heard our prayers, and helped our coun-sels, Blessed the silver and the gold,
f Till once more His house is standing Firm and stately as of old.

f 3 Entering then Thy gates with praises,
p Lord, be ours Thine Israel's prayer:
mf "Rise into Thy place of resting, Show Thy promised presence there!"
Let the gracious word be spoken
Here, as once on Sion's height, cr "This shall be My rest for ever,
f This my dwelling of delight."

mf 4 Fill this latter house with glory
Greater than the former knew;
Clothe with righteousness its priesthood,
Guide us all to reverence true;
Let Thy Holy One's anointing
Here its sevenfold blessing shed;
Spread for us the heavenly banquet,
Satisfy Thy poor with bread.

f 5 Praise to Thee, Almighty Father, Praise to Thee, Eternal Son, Praise to Thee, all-quickening Spirit,
Ever blessed Three in One:
Threefold Power and Grace and Wis-dom,
Molding out of sinful clay,
Living stones for that true temple
Which shall never know decay.

With His lov-ing eye looking down from the sky, And His ho-ly arm spread o'er us,

THE MORNING AND EVENING CANTICLES

AND

OCCASIONAL ANTHEMS

POINTED FOR CHANTING BY THE COMMISSION ACTING UNDER THE AUTHORITY OF THE GENERAL CONVENTION.

ATTEST { H. A. NEELY, Chairman.
CHAS. L. HUTCHINS, Secretary.

In putting forth this Pointing of the Canticles, etc., in accordance with the direction of the General Convention, the Commission would call attention to the great importance and practical usefulness of the following suggestions taken from the Preface to the "Cathedral Psalter:"—

1. The words, from the commencement of each verse and half-verse, up to the accented syllable, are called the Recitation.

2. On reaching the accented syllable, and beginning with it, the music of the chant commences, in strict time (a tempo), the upright strokes corresponding to the bars. The Recitation must therefore be considered as outside the chant, and may be of any length. The note on which the Recitation is made is called the Reciting-note.

3. If there is no syllable after that which is accented, the accented syllable must be held for one whole bar or measure.

4. An asterisk (*) is a direction to take breath. Other stops (, ;) must be attended to as in good reading.

5. As the accent holds the position of the first beat of the first bar, it is unnecessary to sing it louder than any of the words recited: its position, musically, will give it quite enough emphasis.
